

BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL FERPA RELEASE FORM

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (“FERPA”) prohibits access to or the release of educational records or personally identifiable information contained in such records (other than directory information) without the written consent to the student, subject to certain exceptions under the Act. Please refer to BLS Connect and the BLS Policy Page for a summary of a student’s rights under FERPA. This form allows students to grant access to third parties, including parents, to access their educational records maintained by Brooklyn Law School.

I, _____ authorize Brooklyn Law School to release the following educational records and/or information:

---

---

---

These records and/or information should be released to the following person or agency (please provide name and address of person/agency):

---

---

---

The records are to be released for the following purpose:

---

---

---

I request the itemized educational records listed on an attached sheet be amended because the records are misleading, incorrect, or otherwise a violation of FERPA. The correct information is identified.

_____
Student’s Signature

_____
Date

Please submit this form to: Julie Brown, Brooklyn Law School FERPA Officer
111 Livingston Street, 21st Floor, Brooklyn, New York 11201
julie.brown@brooklaw.edu, (718) 780-0352

